

The Positive Coaching Alliance is coming to Ayer Shirley! On Tuesday, November 12, the nationally-renowned sports group will present to students, coaches and parents about its unique program, which encourages the development of character and life skills in addition to athletic skills.

Athletes were nominated by coaches and teammates and were invited via email on Monday, November 4. Please RSVP. If your student wasn't invited, email Steve Kendall at skendall@asrsd.org and get on the waiting list! Athletes will meet with Monica Livingston from 2:45 until 4. in the high school auditorium.

The coaching workshop is open to ALL area youth and high school sports coaches. Please encourage your child's coach to attend! Coaches will work with Ms. Livingston. from 4:15 to 5:45 p.m. in the auditorium.

Finally, parents will have the opportunity to work with Ms. Livingston from 6 to 7 p.m. The focus will be on helping your child enjoy athletics while also learning life skills from sports. This is open to ALL parents in Ayer, Shirley and surrounding towns, so spread the word! There is NO COST to attend this workshop, so come on out! You will not regret it!
